

The Campbell Center

Historic Preservation Studies

Announces Its New

PRESERVATION TRADES SCHOOL

OFFERING HANDS-ON SPECIALIZED TRAINING FOR

HISTORIC PRESERVATION PROFESSIONALS AND TRADES PEOPLE

The Campbell Center is located in Mt. Carroll, Illinois, a historic small town nestled in the rolling hills of Northwest Illinois. The Campbell Center operates on a historic campus that includes 14 masonry buildings in need of every type of preservation, making it the perfect lab for hands-on training. The Campbell Center has been offering preservation workshops since 1980.

2011 Workshop Schedule

MAY WORKSHOPS

- 16-18 Preservation of Gravestones and Cemetery Monuments-Basic Level
- 19-20 Preservation of Gravestones and Cemetery Monuments-Advanced Techniques

JUNE WORKSHOPS

- 6-8 Archaeology for Historic Preservation Projects
- 10-11 Integrated Pest Management
- 8-11 Exterior Painting for Historic Preservation
- 13-16 Historic Exterior Columns Restoration
- 13-16 Historic Window Restoration
- 17 Preservation of Historic Metal Hardware
- 20-22 Restoring Wooden Gutters and Soffits
- 27-30 Log and Timber-Frame Building Preservation

JULY WORKSHOPS

- 11-13 Introduction to Historic Preservation Theory
- 14-16 Overview of American Architectural Styles
- 18-20 Writing Historic Structures Reports
- 21-22 Preservation Maintenance

AUGUST WORKSHOPS

- 22-24 Historic Architectural Interior Finishes
- 29-31 Traditional Gilding

SEPTEMBER WORKSHOPS

- 7-10 Care of Stained and Leaded Glass
- 28-10/1 Wood Floor Repair & Passive Restoration
- 19-23 Historic Interior Plaster: Restoration and Preservation
- 19-21 Specification Writing for Historic Preservation

OCTOBER WORKSHOPS

- 3-6 SWAT team Preservation for Stabilizing Historic Buildings
- 25-27 Historic Paint Analysis (to be held in Chicago, IL)

Campbell Center Instructors

Campbell Center instructors are well-known professionals and experts in their fields. Currently, our faculty includes

DAVID ARBOGAST, Architectural Conservator, Davenport, IA

PATRICIA ECKHARDT, Architectural Historian, Iowa City, IA

JOE GALLAGHER, Log Building Expert, Boise, ID

MARY JABLONSKI, Architectural Conservator, New York City, NY

JOHN LAMBERT, Masonry Expert, Salt Lake City, UT

JOHN LEEKE, Historic Preservation Specialist, Portland, ME

BOB YAPP, Historic Preservation Specialist, Hannibal, MO

Tuition fees include LODGING & MOST MEALS, all course supplies and reference material.

Certificate Program in Historic Preservation is also offered. Information is available on website.

See website for tuition costs. <http://www.campbellcenter.org/pages/pagesschedule2010.html>

www.campbellcenter.org

815-244-1173